For many of Hawaii's top real estate agents, Thursday night was a time to celebrate at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

About 400 people gathered for Hawaii Business' 11th annual Top 100 Realtors Awards. Among them was Yvonne Summerfield, from RE/MAX Kauai Living, who made the Top 100 list this year for the 10th time.

"I think it's just gratifying to be recognized for doing the best that you possibly can and to help the consumer," Summerfield said. "And doing a good job, you get more business. The better you do, the harder you work. I feel it's good for you and it's good for the consumer and the people you share your talent with."

Jaymes Song, from Better Homes and Gardens Real Estate Advantage Realty, agreed, adding that his team members and administrative staff contribute to his success. Song said he's also thankful for his clients, noting that technology is changing the real estate industry by adding
